Flower of the Gods

About Us

Dianthe is a pioneering dry flower brand committed to sustainability and local empowerment. We source regionally adapted blooms from local farmers, creating lasting, eco-friendly alternatives to fresh and plastic flowers.

With eco-conscious packaging and zero imports, we've expanded to 18 Indian states in just three years, earning national recognition as a Top 5 Startup (2023) and winner of the Climate Innovation Award at Kula Innovate.

Dianthe – bringing nature's beauty, sustainably.

Mission

To revive the beauty of local blooms through sustainable dry flower solutions that empower rural women and celebrate Manipur's cultural richness.

Our Impact

- Supporting 100+ local farmers
- Empowering women in remote villages
- Promoting sustainable lifestyles

 100% biodegradable,
zero-waste mission

Say goodbye to plastic and imported artificial flowers.

Our Products

We offer a wide range of beautifully handcrafted dry flower products, including bouquets, festive kits, wreaths, eco-gifting hampers, and customized arrangements—perfect for home décor, rituals, weddings, events, and every special occasion.
